

Things to Keep In Mind During Finals Season

By Susan Scoble

Patron Services Librarian

Finals time is approaching soon. Please follow these simple guidelines to make this time as stress free as possible.

- The library will extend hours November 18- December 11. The library will be open until midnight Nov. 18th-20th. Starting November 21st thru December 11th the library will be open until 2:00a.m. for STCL students only. You will be required to show your STCL ID to remain in library after midnight.
- No food or tobacco is allowed in the library. Drinks are permitted only in approved containers.
- Ultra quiet zones- the 1st, 4th, and 5th floor of the library will be ultra quiet zones. Please limit conversation on these floors. Please limit cell phone usage on these floors-use the stairwell between these floors.
- All Study/Conference rooms will be on a first-come basis. No rooms will be reserved.
- Study/Conference Rooms-The library provides a variety of study spaces for STCL students. The room sizes range from one-person carrels to four, six, and eight person conference rooms. All rooms and carrels have power and data outlets. The one-person carrels are located inside the small two-person rooms on the 1st, 4th, and 5th floors. Open carrels are in the main stacks. Large conference rooms must have a study group of 6-8 students. Drinks are permitted only in approved containers. No food or tobacco products are permitted. Windows in doors must be uncovered for security purposes. Failure to comply with the above rules will result in loss of study room privileges.
- Please do not leave personal items unattended in the library. Lockers are located on floors 2-5 near the copy rooms. These lockers are intended for short-term usage only. No items should be left in the lockers overnight. Abandoned items will be turned over to the College's Security Department.
- Request a security escort to your vehicle after dark and in inclement weather.
- Remember to renew or turn in all library books at the end of the semester.

Happy studying!!!
